Let the school year begin

Dear WISH Families,

Welcome to the 2011-2012 school year! I am thrilled to welcome back our returning families and it is with great enthusiasm that I extend a warm welcome to our new WISH Families. We at WISH Charter Elementary School are committed to making this school year another positive experience for you and your family. Your active support combined with our best professional efforts, will ensure academic and social-emotional success for your child.

The beautiful, blissful days of summer have come to an end and we are in full swing at WISH! What a delight it is to greet students each morning who are so eager to come to school! Thank you to our WISH teachers, paraprofessionals, and parents for making our first few days of school run smoothly!

Thank you to our custodial staff for providing us with a shiny clean school to begin the new school year! Thank you to our Office Staff for the efficient manner of mailings, class placements, and overall warmth and energy! Opening day went very smoothly because of the combined efforts of everyone working together for the benefit of the children.

I'd like to extend a special thank you to the parents of WISH who continue to go above and beyond to ensure ALL children in our WISH community have an exceptional public school experience. Thank you for volunteering to be room parents, serving healthy lunches, hanging projectors, refining the website, posting news updates, joining committees, picking up sardine fertilizer, teaching us how to sort our trash responsibly, reading to children, making apple pies, weeding the garden, painting the walls, cleaning the kitchen, leading community circle, filling the refrigerator, bringing fruit to share with the children, and so much more! You make WISH a fabulous place to learn and teach!

I look forward to seeing each of you on campus. Please stop by the office and let me know how things are going for your child.

Sincerely,

Shawna Draxton

FEATURED TEACHERS

Adrien Murphy Introducing our 2nd grade Teacher

Q. Give us a little background on your childhood and where you grew up.

A. I was born and raised in Culver City and went to the Spanish Immersion program from Kindergarten to Fifth grade. I loved going to gymnastics and ballet class. I couldn't wait to come home every day and play games with my little sister.

Q. What did you want to be when you were a kid?

A. When I was really little, I told all of my friends that I wanted to be a veterinarian because I loved animals and wanted to take care of them. My fourth/fifth grade teacher had more than 20 animals in our classroom! I would always volunteer to take care of the birds, guinea pigs, and rats over the Winter break. I even ended up keeping 2 rats as pets! I now have the most amazing and adorable cat-dog, Tivona. I call her a cat-dog because she acts just like a dog and even barks.

Q. Who/what was your biggest inspiration when you were growing up?

A. I always looked up to my mom, and I still do! When I was little, I would watch her teach Mommy and Me classes, and I wanted to be just like her! My mom is now a Resource Specialist, and we talk all the time about education and fun lesson ideas.

Q. What made you want to work with kids?

A. When I was fourteen years old, I had my first job as a camp counselor. I noticed that some campers didn't feel confident in sports, arts and crafts, and other activities. It reminded me of how I felt when I was a camper. I would hide every time we had sports because I didn't know how to play. I decided to tell the campers that I would do the activity with them and we would learn it together. I have to admit, I was a bit nervous because I had never played soccer or football before but somehow, playing and learning with the campers made all of us feel more comfortable. I started to notice that campers were actively involved in the activities, and instead of sitting on the side they were now showing others how to play. After that summer, I knew that I wanted to help kids believe in themselves that they can be anyone and do anything.

Q. What's the nicest surprise you've experienced since working at WISH?

A. I feel so lucky to have so much support from the parents and families. Everyone is so excited to get involved and be a part of our second grade community. I also love the energy, teamwork, and dedication that all of the teachers have. But the best surprise is how fantastic my class is and how much we laugh and learn from each other every day.

Q. What advice would you give to anyone who wanted to become a teacher?

A. I would say that teaching is the most rewarding job! I would advise aspiring teachers to laugh and smile every day with students. Try to emulate the teachers that made a positive difference in your life and to be open to change.

Q. What's one thing (some things) people probably don't know about you?

A. In High School, I played the flute for the orchestra and was in marching band. I was a camp counselor for 15 years! I created Mad Science, Messy Art, and Edible Art programs. I also love hiking, camping, and going on adventures. I have been parasailing, river rafting, and skiing, and I even went on a hot air balloon ride! I can't wait to try zip lining and other fun outdoor activities!

" I now have the most amazing and adorable 'CAT-DOG', Tivona."

An interview with Mr. B

Q. Give us a little background on your childhood and where you grew up.

A. I haven't grown up yet. That's why I fit so well in TK, Kindergarten and First grade! In all seriousness, I was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. From age 6-18, I lived in the suburbs of Chicago. I did my undergrad at Illinois State and started teaching high school in Chicago in 1999.

Q. What did you want to be when you were a kid?

A. Game show host, gas station attendant, stunt person - if you think I'm kidding, I will give you my mom's number so you can verify.

Q. Who/what was your biggest inspiration when you were growing up?

A. Winnie the Pooh, Hulk Hogan, Barry Sanders, and Albert Einstein, in that order chronologically. You can see the change in values as I grew older.

Q. What made you want to work with kids?

A. I originally decided to be a teacher because I thought it was a realistic way for me to do good things for people. But as I mentioned earlier, I started in high school. I got interested in working with younger students when I moved to San Diego and began substitute teaching in almost every type of classroom you can think of.

Q. What's the nicest surprise you've experienced since working at WISH?

A. The support of everyone - it really helps keep me going.

Q. What advice would you give to anyone who wanted to become a teacher?

A. Do every summer job, internship, and volunteer opportunity you can in every occupational field you can before you decide on any career. If teaching is still the number one choice, go for it. Too many of us were expected to decide what we wanted to spend our lives doing at age 17, with no experience on which to base the decision.

Q. What's one thing people probably don't know about you?

A. If I answered this question each time it was asked, I would run out of things to say because eventually there wouldn't be anything left that people wouldn't know.

Fluffy the Chicken

FLUFFY THE CHICK

Sadie Ross and Fluffy the Chicken

“When we saw how much Miss Sitrick and all the children fell in love with little chick fluffy.... We had to bring her home.”

KIDS CORNER

Catching up with Fluffy?

By Ivey Van Allen-Steinberg

Fluffy, the chick who hatched last year under the watchful eyes of our 1st grade students, granted the WISH INSIDER an exclusive!

Q: Fluffy, do you remember the day you were brought home from WISH?

A: Yes, it was very fun seeing all those faces: I was wondering what they looked like while they were talking to me in the egg! I was a little nervous meeting all the other Ross' chickens because I got pecked a lot. They weren't as gentle as the first graders at WISH. I was scared, but now I'm brave.

Q: Ross family, what made you decide to adopt Fluffy?

A: When we saw how much Miss. Sitrick and all the children fell in love with little chick Fluffy, we didn't have the heart to send her back to some anonymous central chicken location. We had to bring her to our home.

Q: Fluffy, how are you getting along w/the other Ross chickens?

A: At first, I was pecked at because they were bigger. But now I am getting along great. When Ginger came, she became a good friend. I like to be tough with the bigger chickens. Primrose and Egglantine are some of my good friends too. And I just began to follow my kid Sadie again, like I did when I was a little chick.

Q: Ross family, what difference has Fluffy made in your lives?

A: A big difference. Even though we don't have eggs yet, we enjoy having the chickens as our friends. They are always fun to watch and chase. Fluffy has become one of our favorites.

Q: Fluffy, what message do you have for the kids who watched you hatch?

A: I would like to see you again. I miss you. I always think about you. Sadie is going to bring me in to visit soon. Principal Draxton, we know you want to have me sit on your desk especially!
