- B. Discuss follow up regarding strategies for Board Outreach to increase EL enrollment at all WISH schools
- C. Discuss follow up strategies for Board Outreach to increase SED enrollment at all WISH schools - CHECK IN WITH PROGRESS ON EACH ITEM:
 - a. Board will reach out to the neighboring/local preschools and have an informational meeting about WISH. Begin with 4-5 schools. Westport elementary school and other identified by Dr. Danelle Fisher.
 - b. Place a Board Informative in La Opinion to inform parents about WISH Schools
 - c. Invite EL and communications experts from the District and charter school organizations to attend October/November board meetings who can offer concrete strategies to increase the number of EL applicants in the WISH admissions lottery;
 - d. In the interim, the WISH Board's Executive Committee will explore options and develop a preliminary plan during its meeting next week including, but not limited to:
 - i. Website home page button for website translation and admissions information - Shawna will ask Edlio if this is possible
 - ii. Leveraging social media (video posts, FB and YouTube, etc.)
 - iii. Improving data visibility
 - iv. Identify bilingual educators on the WISH staff - Jackie Sorto (IEP Coordinator) We asked if we could identify one bilingual staff person per school
 - e. Executive committee discussed the possibility of a weighted lottery for SED and EL but we spoke about the amount of auditing that would have to take place which adds a significant layer of administrative support for this effort.
- D. Review draft proposal of the Board's annual goal of a parent/teacher engagement policy (Dr. Danelle Fisher)
- E. Discuss the Proposed Board's Policy on Board Members' Children Attendance at WISH Schools (Suzanne Madison Goldstein)
